Would simultaneously expect each one of you to abide by certain guidelines to make this whole event hassle free and help the organizing team to run the whole show smoothly:

- Strictly following the time deadlines specially for meal time, except for the time spent in travel which primarily depends upon the traffic and condition of roads.
- No mishandling or misuse of travel or stay facility in the busses or tents respectively
- No use of foul language or objectionable gestures or any sort physical manhandling with each other or any one amongst the organizing team and the service staff.
- Alcohol can be served; however, its cost is not included in the package and must be arranged individually.
- Keep up your patience if any uncertainty or element of surprise props in which is most natural to happen when you are on an outdoor expedition and that too in the mountains.

Let' s value respect the purpose of this very thoughtful and well-planned event and operate along with the organizing team in complete harmony and collaboration so as to make this whole expedition a memorable experience for all.

So, let's breathe more and take a stride higher for the mountains are calling!!!!!

Awaiting your Dynamic Presence

Manjula along with the Team Transformers and Amaya Hospitality
